Sir,

I have the honour to invite your kind attention to Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Regulation VII of 1917 and to enquire if any person has yet been appointed a Notary Public under the above Regulation.

In view of the need for protesting &c. which has already arisen in some cases, and the probability of similar cases coming up from time to time in future with the increase in the import trade of the State, I have the honour to suggest that the Manager of the Bank of Mysore may be appointed a notary public unless the Government see any objection to such a proceedure.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Manager.

Notification

No. 21893 Legis

In exercise of the power conferred by section 139 of the ~~the~~ Negotiable Instrumen Regulations, VII of 1917, Government are pleased to make the following Rules for the guida and control of Notaries Public appointed under that Regn and fixing the fees payable to those Notaries:-

1. Notaries Public shall, in transacting business under the over.

Regulation, use the forms set forth in the Appendix to this Notification.

2. Besides recording declaration of payment for honor (sec. 113) Notaries Public shall, ~~following the practice existing in the P.~~ also register notings and protests made by them. No particular form of register is necessary for these purposes, but Notaries Public shall keep a substantial blank ~~form~~ book in which to enter copies of all the letters which they may write presenting bills for acceptance or payment or better security; of all bills noted or protested, or paid for honor together with all endorsements thereon (including that made by

NOTIFICATION.

No. G. 21695—Legis 17-17-9, dated 23*rd March* 1920.

In exercise of the power conferred by Section 139 of the Negotiable Instruments Regulation, VII of 1917, Government are pleased to make the following Rules for the guidance and control of Notaries Public appointed under that Regulation and fixing the fees payable to those notaries :—

1. Notaries Public shall, in transacting business under the Regulation, use the forms set forth in the Appendix to this Notification.

2. Besides recording declarations of payment for honor (Section 113) Notaries Public shall, also register notings and protests made by them. No particular form of register is necessary for these purposes, but Notaries Public shall keep a substantial blank book in which to enter copies of all the letters which they may write presenting bills for acceptance or payment or better security ; of all bills *noted, or protested, or paid for honor, together with all endorsements thereon (including that made by themselves, to the effect that the bill has been noted or protested for non-acceptance or non-payment or want of better security) ; and of all protests made by themselves and of all declarations made by payers for honor. Notaries Public shall further, after examination of each entry in the book, affix their signature thereto, and, where demand of acceptance or payment or better security was made by a clerk, shall cause him to affix his signature also to the entry relating to the demand.

3. The book shall be known as the Notarial Register, and the pages thereof shall be numbered consecutively.

4. Every Notary Public shall permit the District Judge or such officer as the Government from time to time appoints in this behalf to inspect his register at such times, not oftener than twice a year, as the District Judge or officer may fix.

5. When the original instrument is in an oriental language any noting or protest or entry in his register which has to be made in respect of the instrument, by a Notary Public may be made either in that language or in English.

6. In making presentments of bills or notes, Notaries Public shall observe the provisions of Chapter V of the Regulation provided that it shall not be necessary for a Notary Public to allow the drawee of a bill of exchange time for deliberation as provided by Section 63.

7. Every Notary Public shall use a plain circular seal bearing if he has been appointed by name, his name and the name of the local area within which he has been appointed to exercise his functions and the circumscription " Notary Public " and, if he has been appointed by virtue of his office, the name of his office, and of the local area within which he has been appointed to exercise his functions and the circumscription " Notary Public ".

8. Every Notary Public shall have an office at such place within the local area for which he has been appointed as may be approved in this behalf by the District Judge.

9. Notaries Public shall charge fees at the rates mentioned below namely :—
